

IPPC CURRICULUM TERMS OF USE:

Education Development Center, Inc. holds the copyright to all IPPC materials on this site. EDC makes these materials available to you—free of charge and downloadable—for your personal use and for non-commercial use within a single institutional setting. Clear attribution to the Initiative for Pediatric Palliative Care is expected when using these materials in any form.

Although EDC encourages the use of these curriculum materials for educational purposes within single health care settings, you may not reproduce or distribute these materials for any other purpose. The use of these materials to provide training of health care professionals across institutions or in a train-the-trainer format is prohibited without the express written permission of EDC. If you are interested in such use or have questions about this policy, please contact the Jean Quinn at jquinn@edc.org for more information.
